

Gifted and Talented Education

In keeping with the intention of the state of Colorado to offer educational opportunities to all children which will enable them to lead fulfilling and productive lives, the district may provide appropriate educational opportunities to all resident children, in accordance with the state statutes.

The local Board of Education has the final determination on placement of children in programs for gifted students.

The school district will participate in BOCES special education program and will also establish district programs that are determined to be necessary in order to provide programs for handicapped students.
